

Pound Ridge Land Conservancy

1361 Old Post Road Pound Ridge, NY 10576

Volunteer Application Form

Thank you for taking the first steps toward volunteering with the PRLC. Your time and energy helps us to fulfill our mission of protecting nature and providing safe hiking trails on our preserves. Please tell us more about yourself by filling out this short form and emailing it to us at landsteward.educator@prlc.net. We look forward to working with you!

Full name:

Street Address:

Town, State, Zip:

Cell phone:

Home phone:

Email address:

Age:

Name of school (if a student):

What are your volunteer interests?

- Trail work (pruning back vegetation, ditching, maintaining steps and pathways, trail marking).
- Working with plants (raising native plants from seed, planting, controlling invasive plants).
- Skilled building (self-supervised small building projects using saws, hammers and drills).
- Mapping, multimedia, or communications projects. Please list applicable skills.
- Other: please describe

How often would you like to volunteer with us? What days are you available for the next few months? Include start and end times if known.

Does volunteering with the PRLC fulfill a school or community service obligation? If so, how many hours are you required to fulfill?

How did you hear about the Pound Ridge Land Conservancy and/or our volunteer program?

Today's date:

Thank you very much for your interest in supporting the Pound Ridge Land Conservancy